JURISDICTION AND VENUE

10.   This is an action for patent infringement arising under the Patent Laws of the United States, United States Code, 35 U.S.C. § 271 et seq. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action under Title 28, United States Code, §§ 1331 and 1338(a).

11.   This Court has personal jurisdiction over each of the Defendants. The Defendants have conducted and do conduct business within the State of Texas. The Defendants, directly or through intermediaries (including distributors, retailers, and others) make, distribute, offer for sale, sell, advertise, and use their products in the United States and the State of Texas.

12.   On information and belief, venue in this Judicial District is proper under Title 28, United States Code, §§ 1391 and 1400(b) because Defendants have regularly conducted business in this judicial district, and the acts complained of herein occurred in this judicial district.

FACTS

13.   U.S. Patent No. 7,714,747 ("the '747 Patent"), entitled "Data Compression Systems and Methods," was duly and legally issued to Plaintiff Realtime Data on May 11, 2010.

14.   Plaintiff Realtime Data is the owner of the '747 patent with the right to collect damages for all relevant times, and has the right to prevent others from making, having made, using, offering for sale or selling products or services covered by the patent, as well as the right to enforce the '747 patent with respect to the Defendants.

15.   On information and belief, Defendants have been and are, within this Judicial District, State, and elsewhere, using one or more financial data compression products and/or systems manufactured, designed, produced, sold and/or offered for sale without license or authorization from Plaintiff Realtime Data.

COUNT ONE – INFRINGEMENT OF U.S. PATENT 7,714,747

16.   Realtime Data incorporates by reference herein the averments set forth in paragraphs 1-15, above.

17.   Defendants have been and are now directly infringing the '747 Patent in this District and elsewhere in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271 including by making, using, selling, and/or offering for sale, one or more financial data compression products and/or services, for compressing or decompressing financial data, covered by at least one claim of the '747 Patent. Defendants have been and are now indirectly infringing the '747 Patent in this District and elsewhere in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271 by actively inducing financial institutions.

18.   Defendant Thomson Reuters has been and is now directly infringing claims 1-22 of the '747 Patent in this District and elsewhere in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271 including by making, using, selling, and/or offering for sale, one or more financial data compression products and/or services, for compressing or decompressing financial data, including electronic trading and market data receipt and delivery systems. Example infringing electronic trading and market data receipt and delivery systems include Reuters Trading for Exchanges (RTEx), AutEx, Reuters Order Routing for Equities, Reuters Station, Reuters Trader, Thomson ONE, TradeWeb, Reuters Plus, Reuters 3000 Xtra, Thomson Reuters Data Feeds, Thomson Reuters Data Feeds Plus, Reuters Market Data System, Reuters Wire Format, Reuters Foundation API, Reuters Data Feed Direct, Reuters Tick Capture Engine, Gissing FASTtunnel, Gissing FAST Output Handler, Gissing FAST Feed Handler, and Gissing FAST Feed Gateway.

19.   Defendant Thomson Reuters has been and is now indirectly infringing claims 14-22 of the '747 Patent in this District and elsewhere in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271. Each of defendant Thomson Reuters' electronic trading and market data receipt and delivery systems indirectly infringes the '747 Patent by actively inducing financial institutions to compress financial data, including but not limited to, American Stock Exchange, Chicago Mercantile Exchange, Options Price Reporting Authority, BATS Exchange, Board of Trade of the City of Chicago, International Securities Exchange, New York Stock Exchange, Boston Options Exchange, Chicago Board Options Exchange, and NASDAQ.

20.   Defendant Bloomberg has been and is now directly infringing claims 1-22 of the '747 Patent in this District and elsewhere in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271 including by making, using, selling, and/or offering for sale, one or more financial data compression products and/or services, for compressing or decompressing financial data, including electronic trading and market data receipt and delivery systems. Example infringing electronic trading and market data receipt and delivery systems include Bloomberg Professional Service (Bloomberg Terminal), B-Pipe, Bloomberg EMS, and Bloomberg Anywhere.

21.   Defendant Bloomberg has been and is now indirectly infringing claims 14-22 of the '747 Patent in this District and elsewhere in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271. Each of defendant Bloomberg's electronic trading and market data receipt and delivery systems indirectly infringes the '747 Patent by actively inducing financial institutions to compress financial data, including but not limited to, American Stock Exchange, Chicago Mercantile Exchange, International Securities Exchange, Options Price Reporting Authority, Deutsche Boerse (Eurex, Xetra, and Xetra International Markets), Russian Trading System, Shanghai Stock Exchange, Swiss Stock Exchange, BATS Exchange, Boston Options Exchange, Chicago Board Options Exchange, NASDAQ, and New York Stock Exchange.

22.   Defendant FactSet has been and is now directly infringing claims 1-22 of the '747 Patent in this District and elsewhere in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271 including by making, using, selling, and/or offering for sale, one or more financial data compression products and/or services, for compressing or decompressing financial data, including electronic trading and market data receipt and delivery systems. Example infringing electronic trading and market data receipt and delivery systems include FactSet Global Prices, Exchange DataFeed, and FactSet Sales & Trading.

23.   Defendant FactSet has been and is now indirectly infringing claims 14-22 of the '747 Patent in this District and elsewhere in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271. Each of defendant FactSet's electronic trading and market data receipt and delivery systems indirectly infringes the '747 Patent by actively inducing financial institutions to compress financial data, including but not limited to, American Stock Exchange, Chicago Mercantile Exchange, Options Price Reporting Authority, BATS Exchange, Boston Options Exchange, Chicago Board Options Exchange, International Securities Exchange, NASDAQ, and New York Stock Exchange.

24.   Defendant IDCO has been and is now directly infringing the '747 Patent in this District and elsewhere in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271 including by making, using, selling, and/or offering for sale, one or more financial data compression products and/or services, for compressing or decompressing financial data, including electronic trading and market data receipt and delivery systems. Example infringing electronic trading and market data receipt and delivery systems include PlusFeed, PlusFeed Select, PlusFeed VPN, PlusTick, DirectPlus, Options Analytics, 360View, IDSI, FutureSource Workstation, eSignal Pro, Market-Q, DATAFEED, EXSHARE, Finstat, OSIDS, Basket Calculation Service, FTS, Options Volatility Service, and PlusBook.

25.   Defendant IDCO has been and is now indirectly infringing claims 14-22 of the '747 Patent in this District and elsewhere in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271. Each of defendant IDCO's electronic trading and market data receipt and delivery systems indirectly infringes the '747 Patent by actively inducing financial institutions to compress financial data, including but not limited to American Stock Exchange, Chicago Mercantile Exchange, Options Price

Reporting Authority, BATS Exchange, Boston Options Exchange, Chicago Board Options Exchange, International Securities Exchange, NASDAQ, and New York Stock Exchange.

26. Defendants Penson and Nexa have been and are now directly infringing claims 1-22 of the '747 Patent in this District and elsewhere in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271 including by making, using, selling, and/or offering for sale, one or more financial data compression products and/or services, for compressing and decompressing financial data, including electronic trading and market data receipt and delivery systems. Example infringing electronic trading and market data receipt and delivery systems include Nexa HyTS, Omnipro, Radiuspro, Axispro, Fastpath, Meridian, and Tick Data.

27. Defendants Penson and Nexa have been and are now indirectly infringing claims 14-22 of the '747 Patent in this District and elsewhere in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271. Each of defendants Penson and Nexa's electronic trading and market data receipt and delivery systems indirectly infringes the '747 Patent by actively inducing financial institutions to compress financial data, including but not limited to American Stock Exchange, International Stock Exchange, Chicago Mercantile Exchange, Options Price Reporting Authority, BATS Exchange, Boston Options Exchange, Chicago Board Options Exchange, International Securities Exchange, NASDAQ, and New York Stock Exchange.

28. Realtime Data has at all times complied with 35 U.S.C. § 287.

29. Realtime Data has been irreparably harmed by the Defendants' acts of infringement of the '747 Patent, and will continue to be harmed unless and until Defendants' acts of infringement are enjoined by this Court. Realtime Data has no adequate remedy at law to redress Defendants' continuing acts of infringement. The hardships that would be imposed upon Defendants by an injunction are less than those faced by Realtime Data should an injunction not issue. Furthermore, the public interest would be served by issuance of an injunction.

30.   As a result of Defendants' act of infringement, Realtime Data has suffered and will continue to suffer damages in an amount to be proved at trial.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

31.   WHEREFORE, Realtime Data requests a judgment:

A.   That Realtime Data is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to United States Patent No. 7,714,747, together with all rights of recovery under the patent for past and future infringements thereof;

B.   That Defendants have infringed United States Patent No. 7,714,747;

C.   That United States Patent No. 7,714,747 is valid and enforceable in law;

D.   Awarding to Realtime Data its damages caused by Defendants' infringement of United States Patent No. 7,714,747 including an assessment of pre-judgment and post-judgment interest and costs;

E.   Entering a permanent injunction against Defendants, their officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, all parent and subsidiary corporations and affiliates, their assigns and successors in interest, and those persons in active concert or participation with any of them who receive notice of the injunction, enjoining them from continuing acts of infringement of United States Patent No. 7,714,747, including without limitation from continuing to make, use, sell and/or offer for sale infringing compression and decompression-based data acceleration products;

F.   That this is an exceptional case and awarding to Realtime Data its costs, expenses and reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 285;

G.   In the event a permanent injunction preventing future acts of infringement is not granted, that Realtime Data be awarded a compulsory ongoing licensing fee; and

H.   Awarding to Realtime Data such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

32.   Pursuant to Rule 38 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Plaintiff hereby demands a trial by jury as to all issues so triable.

Date: May 11, 2010   Respectfully submitted,

                                           MCKOOL SMITH, P.C.
